My comments on this proposal

This is a ridiculous increase to consider in one hit. I've had forestry investment for nearly 20 years and have never seen anything like this proposed. You will be hurting those of us who invested our money in forestry and it will deter others from doing the same. Over a 1000% increase is just not reasonable and any sensible group of people surely can understand that increase is out of this world. People who invested 40 years ago and have already cashed out have benefited more than those still in now.
