My comments on this proposal

Hello, I appreciate that you want to increase the Roding Rate due to the damage that logging trucks do to the roads however a 1173% increase is an absolute joke. This is daylight robbery! If you can't find a way to find the money to cover these costs by a smaller increase or no increase at all then basically you're shit at your jobs and should resign immediately. May be take a cut in your over-inflated wages! If you don't I will be in your area during the next election with a lot of supporters calling for a replacement of all of you. You decide, do you want a job or not? Come on, pull your fingers out and find a solution that is not extortionate!
